Dear Group Members and Others,

A meeting of the Dean Murder Research Group (DMRG) is being called for

Date: Saturday, April 1, 2017

Time: 11am to 2 or later.

Place: Jaffrey Civic Center

Coffee and a light lunch will be provided.

The purpose of this meeting is to...

- 1) catch up on any recent developments including the prospect of some sort of Dean Murder theatrical production
- 2) discuss with and be interviewed by Tim/Lance/Chloe for the purposes of creating a Dean Murder podcast.

This stems from a meeting held on January 18, 2017 at the Civic Center, which included the following:

- Mark Bean, DMRG
- Rob Stephenson, DMRG, Jaffrey Historical Society
- Lisa Bostnar, Jaffrey, actress
- Mary Lou DiPetro, playwright
- Ryan Mullahy, DMRG
- Lance Reenstierna, Wilmington, Mass. Podcaster
- Tim Pillieri, Three Rivers, Mass. Podcaster
- Chloe Canter, Easthampton, Mass. Podcaster

Lance, Tim and Chloe are involved with the production of a podcast focusing on the disappearance of Maura Murray and are interested in putting together a similar production on the Dean Murder

You can access their website at www.mauramurraydoc.com

This is what Lance has sent to me to include in this notice:

"The Dean Murder will be featured on our new podcast, Crawlspace. You can check out our current episodes which we discuss the Brianna Maitland disappearance:

<https://itunes.apple.com/us/podcast/crawlspace/id1187326340> or on YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/crawlspace>.

We plan to begin releasing episodes featuring the Dean Murder in the Spring/Early Summer.

During our meeting on April 1st, we would like to record a round table discussion of and with the Research Group. This can include the theatrical production as well as the details of the case.

We would also like to interview the group and to make the most of our time, we would like it to have the group together when we do this, almost like a panel. For the most part it will be surface level questions asked to various members of the group:

- How did you get involved in the case?
- Describe Jaffrey at the turn of the 20th Century.
- What are the most frustrating parts of this case?
- In your opinion, is there any hearsay which became folklore that should be ignored?
- What are the prevailing theories? Which are erroneous and which hold credibility?

- What are the prevailing theories? Which are erroneous and which hold credibility?
- Who are the most fascinating characters in this case?
- For anyone just getting involved in the case, what is your advice?

We will undoubtedly have more questions before April 1st, but this will give everyone a good sense of what the first recording will be like. Each answer by the Research Group will give way to more discussion at that time which we welcome of course."

It is important for us to know whether you will be attending so please let me know if you are able to do so.

Regards,

Rob Stephenson
